Dear King,

We believe the scientific information is overwhelming: Draining 50 billion gallons of groundwater from the Great Basin would devastate Native American communities, rural economies and wildlife habitat over a huge area.

Further, the families and small businesses of Las Vegas, recovering from a brutal recession, cannot afford the huge price tag for this project.

The Great Basin area is a beautiful example of Nevada. The caverns in the National Park, the rolling farms in the Valley, and the natural landscapes with rivers running through it should never be threatened for the greed of developers in Southern Nevada. Look at the example in California of Mono Lake and the desert that created. Those residents were told by Mulholland that the lake and surrounding farms would not be affected by their water grab.
Stop this insanity in Nevada!

I urge you to deny the applications filed by the Southern Nevada Water Authority and support the best interests of all of Nevada.

Sincerely,

Jill DeStefano
