EskDale Center Participation in Spring Valley Remand Hearings

Dear Madam Hearing Officer:

After reviewing much of the evidence and communications from SNWA, CPB, and other parties in this hearing, EskDale Center has decided to not participate with counsel in these hearings.

Our concerns about the Monitoring, Management and Mitigation Plans are similar to those of Utah's Millard County and other Nevada and Snake Valley protestants. We continue to be concerned that any such plans developed for the Spring Valley applications recognize the uniqueness of local conditions at the individual farms and ranches affected.

EskDale Center would appreciate continued access to the evidence database. This notice will relieve the participants from any further official notices to EskDale Center.

We will offer public comment at the designated time. Thank you for the opportunity to participate in the hearing process.
