DEEP CREEK BAND.

THE WHITE HOUSE, May 29, 1912.

It is hereby ordered that the SW. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the NE. $\frac{1}{4}$, the SE. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the NW. $\frac{1}{4}$, the NW. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the SE. $\frac{1}{4}$, and the NE. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the SW. $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 8, and the S. $\frac{1}{2}$ of the SW. $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 9, T. 11 S., R. 19 W. of the Salt Lake meridian, in the county of Tooele, State of Utah, be, and the same are hereby, reserved from settlement, entry, sale, or other disposal and set aside for school, agency, and other necessary uses for the benefit of Indians on the public domain in the State of Utah, subject, however, to any valid existing rights of any persons thereto.

WM. H. TAFT.

FORT DU CHESNE MILITARY RESERVATION—UINTAH RESERVATION.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington City, August 31, 1887.

SIR: Upon recommendation of the commanding general, Division of the Missouri, I have the honor to request that the following-described tract of land in the Territory of Utah, embraced within the limits of the Uintah Indian Reservation, created by Executive order dated October 3, 1861; and act of Congress approved May 5, 1864 (13 Stats., 63), may be duly declared and set apart by the Executive as a military reservation for the post of Fort Du Chesne, viz:

Beginning at a point 2 miles due north of the flagstaff of Fort Du Chesne, Utah Territory, and running thence due west 1 mile, to the north-west corner; thence due south 3 miles to the southwest corner; thence due east 2 miles to the southeast corner; thence due north 3 miles to the northeast corner; thence due west 1 mile to the point of beginning. Area, 6 square miles—2 by 3.

The Secretary of the Interior states that there is no objection on the part of that department to the use of the tract in question for military purposes (the selection of which is the result of a mutual agreement), provided it be understood that the same be subject to such right, title, and interest as the Indians have to and in said land, which shall be vacated whenever the interest of the Indians require it.

A sketch of the proposed military reservation is inclosed herewith. I have the honor to be, sir, with great respect, your obedient servant,

R. MACFEELEY,
Acting Secretary of War.

The PRESIDENT.
